Member Comments:

Jeremy Brookshaw said there were no complaints about ATV/UTV traffic. He also talked about and had fliers for Trempealeau County ATV Club Ride and Southern Wisconsin Off Road Bicycle Rides and he talked about the off road motorcycle ride done in the Ellsworth area. He mentioned that Sue Gerdes and Scott Freier do a lot of work on this event. He also asked what they are doing in the Town of Oak Grove. President Larry Johnson said he has not heard back anything.

Members and Jeremy Brookshaw had discussion of counties in Minnesota for UTV's to ride roads.

Darren Place asked about EE and President Larry Johnson told him that the county turned ATV route down.

Discussion was to try and get to Bay City thru the Jack O'Neil property, He may let us use it.

Discussion took place to maybe have a booth at the fair next year, Sheldon Huppert suggested to make a BIG map of the county and put all the routes and trails on it. Jeremy Brookshaw suggested to get the people informed about how to get road routes open and what is required to travel on roads.

Chuck Gregg says he will see if his son-in-law can help to fill the hole on the railroad bed.

The next meeting will be Monday, August 21, 2017 at 6:00 p.m. at Sneakers Pub and Eatery in Spring Valley. Motion by Tina Huppert, second by Steve Raechke, to adjourn the meeting at 7:22 p.m. Motion passed. Members are encouraged to ride your ATV/UTV to the next club meeting.

Respectfully submitted by,
Sharolyn and Larry Johnson
